1. Mr. Robert King was recently appointed First Assistant to Vice President Richard Nixon. It is my understanding Mr. King will be, more or less, the Vice President's right hand man, and will act in his place during Mr. Nixon's absence.

2. The undersigned is a close personal friend of Mr. King and his wife, and has been since 1941. If this personal and social relationship can serve to benefit the Agency in any way, the undersigned will be only too glad to cooperate.
